RESPONSE and AMENDMENT

Sir:

Responsive to the Office Action of February 20, 2001, Applicants provide the following amendments and remarks. A one month extension of time is included herewith, extending the period of response to and including June 20, 2001. For the Examiner's convenience, each of the pending claims is provided herewith.

Amendments to the Claims

B.C. Sub C1 38. A method for locating items of interest relative to a geo-defined location, comprising the steps of:

specifying the geo-defined location at a port; specifying a category associated with the items of interest at the port; communicating the location and the category to a database connected, datawise, to the port; and receiving, at the port, information defining geographic coordinates of the items of interest.
